

Glens Falls Golden Eagles

Press Release

July 29, 2006
PRESS RELEASE

MAYOR TO THROW OUT FIRST PITCH AT GOLDEN EAGLES GAME

To help honor sports in Glens Falls and show support to sports in the community, Mayor Roy Akins has agreed to throw out the honorary first pitch before Friday nights Glens Falls Golden Eagles game at 7:05 PM.

The Golden Eagles are having a "Save The Frostbite Night" on Friday to both honor the Frostbite and show support to bring hockey back to the local Glens Falls area.

The fireworks show scheduled for after the game has been postponed until July 22nd due to a scheduling conflict with the Little League. Instead, every fan entering East Field will get a free ticket to the game on July 22nd as well as a free scoop of ice cream.

For any questions, please call Chris Klemmer at the Glens Falls Golden Eagles at 792-2800.